

Solicitor

Litigation and Dispute Resolution – 4 to 5 years' PQE

The Firm

Devonshires has been based in the City of London for more than 150 years. From our offices on London Wall we provide legal services throughout England and Wales. We act for a broad range of clients, including private and public companies, developers, local authorities, funders and regulators. We are a “full service” firm with specialists in Banking, Commercial/Corporate, Litigation, Housing, Employment, Projects & Property. Over the past few years we have grown significantly and now have approximately 230 employees.

The Team

The team deals with a broad range of disputes and has significant expertise in resolving complex commercial issues. We focus on achieving the commercial objectives of our clients, including minimizing risk and liability for costs at the outset of a dispute through to advising on the best strategy for securing the desired outcome, whether by way of litigation, negotiation or alternative dispute resolution.

We have substantial experience in all aspects of commercial dispute resolution and litigation, dealing with cases in every tier of the English court system from the County Court to the Supreme Court, together with domestic and international arbitration and other forms of alternative dispute resolution. In addition, we have acted in many overseas cases and have managed large teams within such claims. Separately we undertake privately paid criminal cases, public inquiries and inquests.

Job Purpose

The role will comprise a mixture of general commercial litigation work, including commercial contract disputes, insolvency disputes, professional negligence claims, regulatory, criminal / inquest / inquiry and civil fraud work.

An important part of the role is providing direct support and assistance to Partners' in the team, whilst also helping with the management and development of more junior fee earners and contributing more widely to the team and its growth.

Main Duties and Responsibilities of the Role

Responsible for the day to day running of files to include, but not limited, to:

- Running and managing own files, delegating to trainees and paralegals as appropriate;
- High Court and County Court Litigation as well as mediation, arbitration and other dispute resolution;

- Advocacy, where appropriate;
- Drafting documents and assist in managing/manage the dispute resolution process;
- Supporting the partners on large and more complex matters as well as generating a caseload of your own;
- Interact directly with clients, manage their expectations and meet their deadlines.
- Prepare and present training to clients on various aspects of the law as directed.
- To be fully involved in marketing and business development in a client focused manner.
- Organise and maintain tidy and accurate files both in hard copy and electronically.
- Provide support to the other fee earners within the department and to share knowledge as and when required.
- Follow department procedures, the SRA Handbook and Firm's policies and procedures as detailed in the Office Manual, including LEXCEL.
- Undertake such duties and tasks that are appropriate for the role of Solicitor such as changes in information systems and new technology as may reasonably be required.

If you would like further details or wish to apply for this position please email your CV and covering letter direct to legal.recruit@devonshires.co.uk and also complete the diversity monitoring questionnaire which can be accessed by clicking here.

Person Specification

Attributes and Skills Required

- You will have at least 4 years PQE as a Commercial Litigation Solicitor ideally with experience of civil fraud;
- You will have a strong academic background, ideally gaining a 2:1 at degree level;
- Previous experience in the High Court;
- You will enjoy client contact and have excellent communication skills, both written and verbal;
- Ability to prioritise workload to increase efficiency;
- You will be commercially aware, proactive and able to convey clear and concise information to clients and external organisations, which will not compromise the practice or the firm;
- A high attention to detail to produce work / documentation which is consistently of a high standard;
- To have a flexible approach to work to ensure client deadlines are always met and clients are communicated with on a consistent and regular basis;
- You will be happy to undertake work with minimal supervision;
- To be familiar with Word, Outlook and Internet applications;
- An advocacy qualification would be an advantage but is by no means necessary.

Devonshires Solicitors LLP is committed to providing equal opportunities in employment and to providing a workplace free from discrimination and harassment. As such all job applicants, employees, partners and third parties who come into contact with us, will receive equal treatment, regardless of age, disability, gender re-assignment, marriage and civil partnership, trade union activities, pregnancy and maternity, race, religion or belief, sex or sexual orientation. We welcome applications from groups where we are currently under-represented. For this reason we ask that all candidates complete the recruitment monitoring survey in complete confidence for statistical purposes in order that we can effectively monitor how well our Diversity procedures are working. To review our policies on Diversity & Inclusion and Dignity at Work please visit our recruitment pages at www.devonshires.com