- Assisting in running files on a fee earning basis;
- Compiling legal research into the latest court decisions in construction law and construction dispute resolution (adjudication, arbitration and litigation) into newsletters and briefings which can be distributed to clients and prospective clients.

Main Duties and Responsibilities:

This is not an exhaustive list and from time to time it may be necessary to vary these to meet the department and business needs.

- Fee Earning Role
 - Assist in drafting advice to clients on construction disputes including payments, extensions of time, loss and expense, defects and insurance issues;
 - Assist in drafting submissions for adjudication and arbitration proceedings; managing proceedings in the Technology & Construction Court;
 - Assist in amending and advising on building contracts, development agreements and agreements for lease, consultant's appointments, plus all supplementary

- documentation such as security documents, warranties, novations and assignments;
 - Assist with enquiries made by clients, barristers and other fee earners, chasing paperwork where necessary;
 - Provide clients with monthly invoices and progress reports as and when required;
 - Liaise with the court prior to trials to ensure necessary paperwork is sent and received and follow up on late/lost paperwork;
 - Attend court to assist barristers and other fee-earners.
- Research Role
 - Identify and review decisions from the courts of England & Wales and (from time-to-time) the courts of international jurisdictions;
 - Compile the research into a newsletter for clients and prospective clients together with a commercially-focused legal opinion and guidance;
 - Distribute the draft newsletter to partners and fee-earners in the department for amendments always providing a deadline for a response and actively chasing to ensure that publication deadlines are achieved;
 - Agree a final version with your line manager and distribute to clients and prospective clients via email as directed and post a copy on our website;
 - Liaise with Business Development in house as appropriate to ensure that all publications comply with Devonshires' branding prior to distribution;
 - Ensure the publications are kept up to date and re-issued as prescribed (monthly and/or bi-weekly basis).

Person Specification

- A strong academic background with a minimum 2:1 degree or equivalent in Law (or appropriate conversion);
- Successful completion of the BPTC;
- Proactive and prepared to work independently and intelligently exercise own judgment with minimal supervision always adopting a can-do attitude;
- Excellent communication skills, both written and verbal;
- High attention to detail to produce work / documentation which is consistently of a high standard;
- Capable of taking a collaborative and collegiate approach to matters, recognising that one can always learn new skills as well as imparting knowledge to others.
